The Journal of Contemplative Psychotherapy is published annually by The Naropa Institute. No part of this volume may be reproduced in any form (except for brief quotations, not to exceed 500 words, in a review or professional work) without permission in writing from the author and publisher. All rights to articles revert to authors.

Papers which address any aspect of psychology and psychotherapy will be considered for publication, but preference will be given to those including clear descriptions of clinical application and its relation to personal contemplative practice. Manuscripts should be double-spaced and submitted in triplicate to: The Editor, Journal of Contemplative Psychotherapy, The Naropa Institute, 2130 Arapahoe Ave., Boulder, CO 80302. The APA form is the preferred style of annotation and copyright clearance must be obtained by the author for all quotations from published works which exceed the permitted maximum. A list of endnote and bibliographic references should be provided on a separate sheet.

Authors may order offprints of their articles prior to printing.

Annual subscriptions are not available at this time. For information on back issues, write to: Journal of Contemplative Psychotherapy, The Naropa Institute, 2130 Arapahoe Ave., Boulder, CO 80302.
